BY A CONSOLIDATION OF THE ASH-VILLE UNION AND AMERICAN and the Why do you sign yourself 'Looney ?' DISPATCH, and by the generous and united support of the Union and Disparce by the patrons of both the former papers, the Proprieters are enabled to present a Newspaper hithato unsurpassed in this city or State. IN FULLNESS AND ACCURACY

NEWS, our paper will compare favorably the best in the entire country; and in saying we only repeat the expressions of many patrons who are most capable of judging in matters."

In the Political Interests of the People.

The UNION AND DISPATCH, as bereto fore, will take the Constitution and laws for its guide; and in the discussion of all the new and intricate questions and issues arising out of the extraordinary condition in which the country i placed, it will adhere to the principles an teachings of the founders and expositors of our government and institutions. It will endeavor to guard with vigilance and defend with unwavering earnestness and faith the rights and intests of all the States, and the essential princides which constitute the basis of the Republic. We shall appear all invasions of these, and of the States under them. Feeling that they re endangered by the revolutionary schemes of Radical politicians who now hold the Logis- of them. ative power of the Government, we shall abote othing of our past opposition to their meawith these views, which are no less than resound convictions, we cannot and will not hesitate to defend the unfortunate South the aspersions and Impositions heapen upo is people, and urge that Justice and Right shall erty. And the telegraph, in our day meted out to them.

Our Manufacturing and Domestic Interets.

We shall constantly admonish the Souther people to be self-reliant, and shall do what we may be able to induce the establishment of manufactories in our midst for our home produets. To this end we will pay special attention to the cour and statistics of manufacturing and exert ourselves to encourage the diversification of Southern industries and the development of Southern resources.

Our Financial and Commercial Column.

Every department of business has an immedinte interest in the markets of the country, and in its financial fluctuations and condition. The man who falls to keep himself properly advised as to the rise and fall of the markets, as controlled by the laws of demand and supply. and the relative condition of the currency, is exposed to constant loss, and must necessarily fall behind his more intelligent and enterprising usighbors. In order to make our paper valuable as well as interesting, we shall continue to make this a special reaties. Our Daily Market Reports, domestic and foreign, by telegraph, and our City Reports, gotten up at heavy expense, have challenged the commendation of our best business men; while our current Finansial Reports from all the leading money centre of the country are fuller than have ever publishes, by any other journal in Tennessee.

Jpon the Subject of Agriculture And kindred topies, we shall also give an extensive variety of valuable and interesting matter-the best adapted to the farming classes of our State, which will, in a great measure, supply the place of a family agricultural paper.

For the Family Circle,

And for the special pleasure and profit of the young, each week we will give a general literary and religious miscellany. Nothing shall find its way into our columns unfit for the perusal the mothers and daughters of the land. Depreeating the demoralizing sensationalism of many contemporary journals, we shall eschew that character; striving to give the reader substantial matter, preferring to be useful rather than ansational.

Decisions of the Supreme Court.

In view o the more uities of the legal profes sion, and the general public interest attaching to the many new questions coming before our udicial tribunals, we will publish all the important desisions of the Supreme Court, from that he will henceforth oppose the Radical official sources, which may be relied open as party, and acknowledges as his own the atiraly trustworthy. BUTLER AMONG THE TELEGRAMS. The Washington correspondent of the hicago Tribuuc (Radical) furnishes the allowing:

It is at your peril in these days that you say anything by telegraph. Straightway Butler cites you before him, shakes you at the Sergeant-at-Arms, knocks you down, the Sergeant-at-Arms, knocks you down, and then dames you for falling. He asks about that little peccadillo of your Uncle William. He suggests that you tell the precise truth upon the case of your sister who married a barber to get his property, and cheat the children of his first wife. Met by this kind of cross-examination, you surrender at will. There is no reply to a cart-

To imagine a genuine case of happiness, as a telegraph operator relates it, you must see Gen. Butler let loose upon several barrels of telegrams. He is all activity. He has blank subpenas, and sends for folks by the wholesale. Being himself familiar with speculations, his inquisitiveness is whefted to the sharpest edge. He penetrates all their allanes. Coming to the following dispatch, he feels that he has struck a lively inystery:

"Pete, sell. Go one straight. Raw egg.
Charge to my account. Ditto this end. Loo-"Now," says Gen. Butler, "answer me

"I don't sign myself 'Looney." "Ha! Sirra! Look there," says the General, "Spell that! What is it?

Quick!"
"Why," says the man, "that ain't Looney; it's J. W. Ney."
"Silence," says General Butler; "I know you, sirra! I know you!"
After considerable ciphering, the General

"Now, Looney, who is Pete ?" "Pere Hurley, my partner! All that is said here is: 'Pete Hurley, sell out my account and take a drink, just as I am doing "But what is this about raw eggs? Why ggs? Answer on your oath, why eggs? "Eggs and sherry," says Looney, prompt-ly "I wonder you don't keep 'em here." "Sergeant-at-Arms," says the General, not this contumacious witness in custody But hold on! Looney, how much did Pete sell for you?"

"That ain't got nothing to do with im-peachment," says Pete. "I won't tell you."
"Take care," says the General; "answer on your oath! Where did you get the margin to put up, and how much did you The General then, by successive references to the Sergeant-at-Arms and stern interlocutions, gets to the bottom of the endiary matter, which Looney only wished to conceal because his transactions had been so ridiculous that he was ashamed

He calls, perhaps, for the telegrams of Zach, Chandler, and investigates his friend's finances. He probes the Sumper mestic difficulties. He sees whether Forney got old James Buchanan to sign away as trustee to his Eighth street proj trusted and sacred as the mails, bearing its private burden of grief, sudden poverty, the shame of one's daughter, the folley one's wife, has been for nearly two weeks in the custody of a man with boundless in nisitiveness and fearful memory. What is the defense of the General when witted with this: "The English government," he said wired even the mails at the time of the Thirtist riots."

Perhaps so ! but that was the desperate device of a tory Ministry to retard the sufrage, and this is an inquest to remove a President who stands in the way of universal suffrage. Altogether, this trial has shown surprising morals in New York and Washington-n President's drunken speeches, a gazno job, a whisky ring, wholesale seizure of telegrams, copions use of spies, and the manners of General Butler.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP

The Rumor of an Amnesty Proclamation-Chief Justice Chase Formally Abandons the Endical Party-Stokes Denles the Brownlow-Stokes Dispatches-The National Intelligencer and the Democratic Platform - Washtugion Municipal Affairs - Two Mayors and Two Sets of Boards in the Field-Woolley Purges Himself. Special to the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 8,-Rumors are prevalent here that a proclamation of a eneral amnesty is to be issued by the President on Wednesday. I know that he has been strongly urged by many of his friends to adopt this measure, and that many others have made earnest efforts to dissuade him from it. I understand that his practice has been to listen attentively to all arguments and suggestions upon the subject, seeking information as to facts but not committing

In my opinion, and, I think, in th pinion of most Democrats, it would be nost impolitic on the part of the President o proclaim general amnesty while Congress remains in session. It would be sure to raise another row. A second impeachment would at once be inaugurated. You are aware that a law of Congress purports to take from the President or to deny to him the power of pardon. That law, to be sure, is palpably unconstitutional, still it is a law, and Congress, you know, holds that the President is bound to execute any and every Congressional law, whether constitu ional or not, until the Supreme Court shall bave declared it unconstitutional

The Senate, it is true, failed to convict the President for having, as it was alleged, violated the tenure of office law. but one of the defenses set up for him was, that he had not violated it, or that, if he had violated it, he had done so uninten tionally. No such defense, however, could be made if he were to set at defiance the law that by its terms deprives him of the power of pardon. Therefore, his unscrupulous enemies might prevail against him however just, and right, and patriotic his action might be. The friends of the Chase movement seem pretty well satisfied with the progress they have so far made. The Chief Justice, thoroughly disgusted with the unblushing rascality of Badicalism, hus shaken the dust from his feet and abandoned the party altogether. He authorizes the statement entiments recently attributed to him in the New York Herald. The sentiments referred to were in the main such as are held by a majority of the Democratic party. The most striking exception was the doctrine of universal manhood suffrage which Mr. Chase still clings.

In the National Intelligencer of Saturday very large increase in the number of our appeared the brief and pointed telegraphic dispatches which were said to have passed reduce the price of subscription to these editions | hetween Brownlow and William B. Stokes eities of the people, in the impovershed condipublished in the Journal while that question was pending. To-day Stokes comes out in a card denying the authenticity of the dispatches. Then the question comes up, if those were hot the dispatches which passed between Brownlow and Stockes in what particular do they differ from those which did pass between them? This question, however, Mr. Stokes is not expected to answer, unless Butler should summon n oo him before the smelling committee and threaten him with a corner of Wooliey's The National Intelligencer of this morning insists that the platform which is to be adopted by the Democratic National Conthe campaign the supremacy of the white pinted JAS M. HAMILTON, Director vention shall acknowledge as vital issues of race, and the utter illegality of the recon-struction acts of Congress, and shall declare he negro governments being erected at To-day the Radicals, in defiance of law, ganized both boards and assumed to be organized both boards and assumed to be the city government, the Secretary of the old board recognizing and calling the de-feated Radical candidates. In the mean-time the Conservatives, who were duly elected, also effected an organization of the boards. The Radical Register refuses to surrender the ballot-boxes, and the Con-servatives are thus prevented from counting he vote. The Radical boards having or ganized, they at once declared Bowen elected Mayor; but Mayor Wallach refused to surrender the office under the circumstances, whereupon Bowen proceeded to break the lock, and took possession by vio-CLOTHING

lence. This state of things has created great confusion and excitement, and there is no telling where it will end. Bowen was clected through the grossest fraud, and there is little doubt that he would have been declared "out," and the Conservative candidate placed in office; and it was to prevent this act of simple justice that these high-handed measures have been adopted and carried out,

Special to the Louisville Courier. WASHINGTON, June 9.—Woolley was before Congress to-day, and the result is he will answer the questions. Indeed they have been answered by another wit ness already, and the managers are satisfied that the money he disbursed had no reference to impeachment. The whisky-ring gentlemen, it is suggested, know more about it than any one else. It is a significant fact that Schenck, one of the bitterest partisans in the House, has sternly opposed the pros-ecution of Woolley. The prisoner will oon be at liberty.

Alex. Long, of Cincinnati, who was expelled from Congress for a disloyal speech, a here, advocating the nomination of Chase, who, he says, has a strong party in Col. Pennebaker, just returned from Richmond, says the Conservatives are in high spirits, and confident they will beat the negro Constitution thirty thousan Department removals of Radicals are quietly progressing. Heads will fall fast apon the adjournment of Congress.

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION. Elaborate Preparations to Receive the Delegates-The Headquarters of the Various State Delegations-Information for Members of the Convention.

From the New York World. Great preparations are now being made in this city for the purpose of accommodating the numerous delegations who are to be present in New Yark during the first week in July, from all parts of the Union, to take part in the deliberations which are to result in the nomination of the next President and Vice President of the United States on a Democratic national platform Tammany Hall will accommodate an immense assemblage within its capacious walls, but as it is calculated that each delegate will be accompanied, on an average by at least ten friends or backers, it will be necessary to find quarters in other place for this immense concourse when the labor of each day's session are concluded, Irving Hall has been engaged by the State Cen tral Committee of Pennsylvania for the convenience of the delegation from the Keystone State, and Masonic Hall will furnish sleeping quarters for the Pendleton Escort, which is to number over five hun-

The walls of the Academy of Music will nce again resound, as in days of wore, to the eloquence of Democratic orators, and it is also believed that the Circus Building in the vicinity will be engaged for the accommodation of outside Southern delega tions, The Everett House will furnish board and lodging to two hundred and fifty delegates and their friends from Maryland and other Border States. The Hancock men will congregate at the Astor House in large numbers, and negotiations are now going on with the proprietors of this house and delegations from Illinois and Connecticut. The Connecticut men have a desire to secure the ladies' ordinary for a caucus room to meet in. Five hundred delegates and their friends are expected at the Astor House. Accommoda tions have been made ready at the St. Nicholas Hotel for twelve hundred persons who are expected to be present at the convention. The Chase men and supporters of Governor English, of Connecticut, will be found at this hotel principally. At the Southern and New York Hotels preparations on a grand scale are being perfected for delegates from the Border and Southern States, and the denizens of those bostelries will once more behold the familiar faces of staunch Southern Democrats. The Everett House is negotiating with the Vermont delegation and it is probable that the Green Mountain boys will be found here in large numbers. The Pendleton men will aggregate themselves at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The irrepressible, indefatigable and never-to-be-beaten Col. Woolley, of Cincinnati, who had the honor of ktcking Butler some weeks since in Washington, and who is now enduring imprisonment for his country's sake, has secured rooms for the West Virginia delegation at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The New York State delegation, numbering sixty-five persons, marshaled by Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, as will also twenty-six delegates from Indi ana, headed by their chairman, Lafayette Develine The Illinois delegation of thirty persons, under charge of Storey, of the Chicago Times, and the Obio delegation of forty-two persons, with their gallant chair-man, Gen. George W. McCook, will occupy quarters at the Avenue Hotel. Committee and caucus rooms have been engaged at all the hotels named from the first day of July until the close of the convention, which will begin its session on the 4th of July. It will cost each delegate about seven dollars a day to live in this city during the convention, including the necessary trifling expenses of the barber's and boot-black fees, and car fare. Many leading statesmen and politicians have en-gaged rooms at the different hotels from the twentieth and twenty-fifth of June until the close of the convention, in order to have time to persect their manipulations and organization of the country delegations. The admirers of Charles Francis Adams, from Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont, will repose their aching imbs at the Clarendon Hotel. Tammany Hall will be fully ready by the 25th of June, and the inaugural or dedicatory eremonies will be of the most imposing description ever beheld in New York of a political nature. Notice to Show Cause on Petition for Discharge-In Bankruptcy.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE, THAT IL. F. Lacater, W. G. Wannick, W. H. Tomlinson Larater, W. G. Wannek, W. H. Tombinson and George M. Huntington, have filed in the office of the Clerk of this Court their persuana for DISCHARGE, and it was thereupon ordered by the Court that a hearing he had upon the

Eight Weeks for Nothing! ROUTELTS. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN,

apri ii Waristy, quality and price

A LL SUBSCRIBERS TO THE CULTIVA-

A tor and Country Gentleman for the covered previous to November 1, 1867, with the maney, will december that paper weekly through November and December, eight numbers in all, out charge. and Country Gentlemen published in large weekly numbers of sixteen to twenty pages each, and designed to include every department of Agriculture, Sisck Rais-ing, Horticulture and Domestic Receiving. The publishers prefer using the following excom well-informed sources, rather the speak for themselves: The Maine Farmer speaks of the Country ntieman as "standing at the head of the Agricultural press of the country.

The Scottish Farmer calls the Country thentheman "the best of all the American newspapers devoted to mailtee of rural economy.

The transferers Monthly cays that the Country tientleman is "conducted with a degree of talent equal to any European journal, and superior to most of them." The Canada Expuers' Advocate hars: DWo are in receipt of agricultural publications from all parts of the world, but for truthful accounts, all parts of the world, but for truthful accounts, well written, practical orticles, and general management of the paper, we have seen none at all to compare with the Cultivator and Country Gentleman, published in the United States."

TERMS: The terms are lower than those of any other paper of similar standing: One copy, $2.16. Specimen copies free of charges.

And let it be remembered, in one, that those who subscribe for 1868, at any date subsequent to November 1, 1867, will be grappied with the weekly numbers from seeing to remittance to the close of 1867, granustously. Address LUTHER TUCKER & SON, Publishers, $2.00 Orders for the above fine Agricultural Paper, accompanied by the money, addressed to the Union And Disparent Office, will be promptly attended to, and receipts for same forwar ed
